1. Claims 1-5 remain for examination. Claims 6,7 have been canceled.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claim 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by McNeill et al. (4,876,643).

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by O'Connor (6,266,766).
4. As to the newly amended feature of "during execution" instead of "the midst of", it is directed to the language format change, not affecting the scope of the claim.

5. The rejections are maintained and incorporated the last Office action by reference on 09/30/05/
6. The response filed on 12/27/05 has been fully considered but is not persuasive.
7. In the remarks, applicant argued that :
 - a) O'Connor 's execution units do not operate concurrently to achieve execution of an instruction, one execution unit wait for result of another execution unit;
 - b) computer task is performed by executing series of instructions in sequence;
 - c) a search is a computing task, not an instruction.
8. As to a) above, even if one execution unit had to wait for another execution unit , it did not necessarily mean that it was not a concurrent processing. A concurrent processing could be two execution units run independently and dependently at respective points of time , and produced results simultaneously. O'Connor taught a plural execution units independently and dependently (see in order and parallel) to produce results simultaneously (see col.3 ,lines 45-59). Therefore, it must have concurrent processing. See in order or parallel fashion in col.7, lines 37-46.
9. As to b) above, examiner agrees that a task is a series of instruction in sequence. But, the number of instructions could be one or more than one. A single-instruction task in a task.
10. As to c), applicant is reminded that unclaimed features cannot be used to overcome the prior art (e.g. see CCPA In re Lundenberg & Zuschlag, 113, USPQ 530,

Art Unit: 2183

534 (1957)). For example, nowhere does applicant claim recite "instruction not a search task", non-search task instruction", or the like.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
